

Framepool's new link with National Film Board of Canada

Following its new sales and representation agreement with the National Film Board of Canada (NFB), Framepool now offers a huge range of NFB content via its online portal.

The NFB produces and distributes innovative, socially relevant documentary, animation, alternative drama and digital media productions. Its 13,000 productions have won over 5,000 awards, including 12 Oscars®.

Even more can be made available offline through the Framepool research department, including clips of World War I and II and the comprehensive insights into the global society of the twentieth century.

The NFB marks its 70th anniversary in 2009 with a new national online Screening Room and a slate of bold, innovative productions. Framepool was founded in 2001 as a joint project by two filmmakers, Ulrike Ziegler and Dr. Stephan Bleek. Today it has offices in Munich, London, Paris, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and Miami..
