

Framepool now licenses ORF...

The Austrian Broadcasting Corporation, Österreichischer Rundfunk (ORF), is making selected material accessible for ongoing online marketing via Framepool.com. The subject matter

...distributes Blacklight

Framepool has also signed a distribution agreement with BlackLight Films. Founded by award winning cinematographer, director, and producer

...and takes on AFP

As a global news agency, AFP supplies comprehensive, reliable and independent reports from across the world. More than 40 international video production units produce a wide is divided into nature and landscape material, news, culture and historical footage. ORF is Austria's largest media provider with three television channels, three national radio stations and nine

Louis Schwartzberg, BlackLight Films offers a broad range of excellent HD imagery and 35mm cinematography – all of these are accessible now range of reports in several languages 24/7. These clips are now available via Framepool.com for further licensing and use by filmmakers. The new marketing agreement applies both to regional radio stations. ORF's film archive dates right back to the 1950s. It is also the largest cooperative member of the Austria Presse Agentur (APA).

very easily via Framepool's online collection.

current and future material, as well as to motion content from previous years.

Tel: +44 (0)20 7014 3670

Email: london@framepool.com